WASHITA HEIGHTS HIGH SCHOOL

CORN, OKLAHOMA

WASHITA HEIGHTS ELEMENTARY

COLONY, OKLAHOMA

DEDICATION

Behind every successful student, there is a teacher who has enabled him to discover his abilities. The teacher should be thought of as one who inspires her students as well as instructs them. She looks into the minds of her students, hoping to arouse their curiosity and instill in them a desire to want to learn.

Right here at Washita Heights, we have a teacher with such talent. She has just enough time to help anyone, whether its a school project or a personal problem. She has a special interest in each student. This person has a smile and the talent to inspire anyone. Mrs. Yonzell Vogt is this dedicated person.

Mrs. Vogt has been at Washita Heights four years. She has sponsored various classes, the 4-H, Chieftain staff, and the Smoke Signal staff.

With a Master's Degree from Southwestern State College, she is quite an asset to Washita Heights.

So to you, Mrs. Vogt, the yearbook staff would like to present the CHIEFTAIN '73.

YONZELL
VOGT

CHIEFTAIN STAFF

The goal of the 1973 Chieftain staff was to produce a book which would capture the memories and activities as they really happened and to present the many "faces" of Washita Heights.

Faces tell a story all their own whether it be excitement, sadness, concentration, concern, surprise or happiness. A special theme section, the use of color, special photography and a custom designed cover help to create these memories for you.

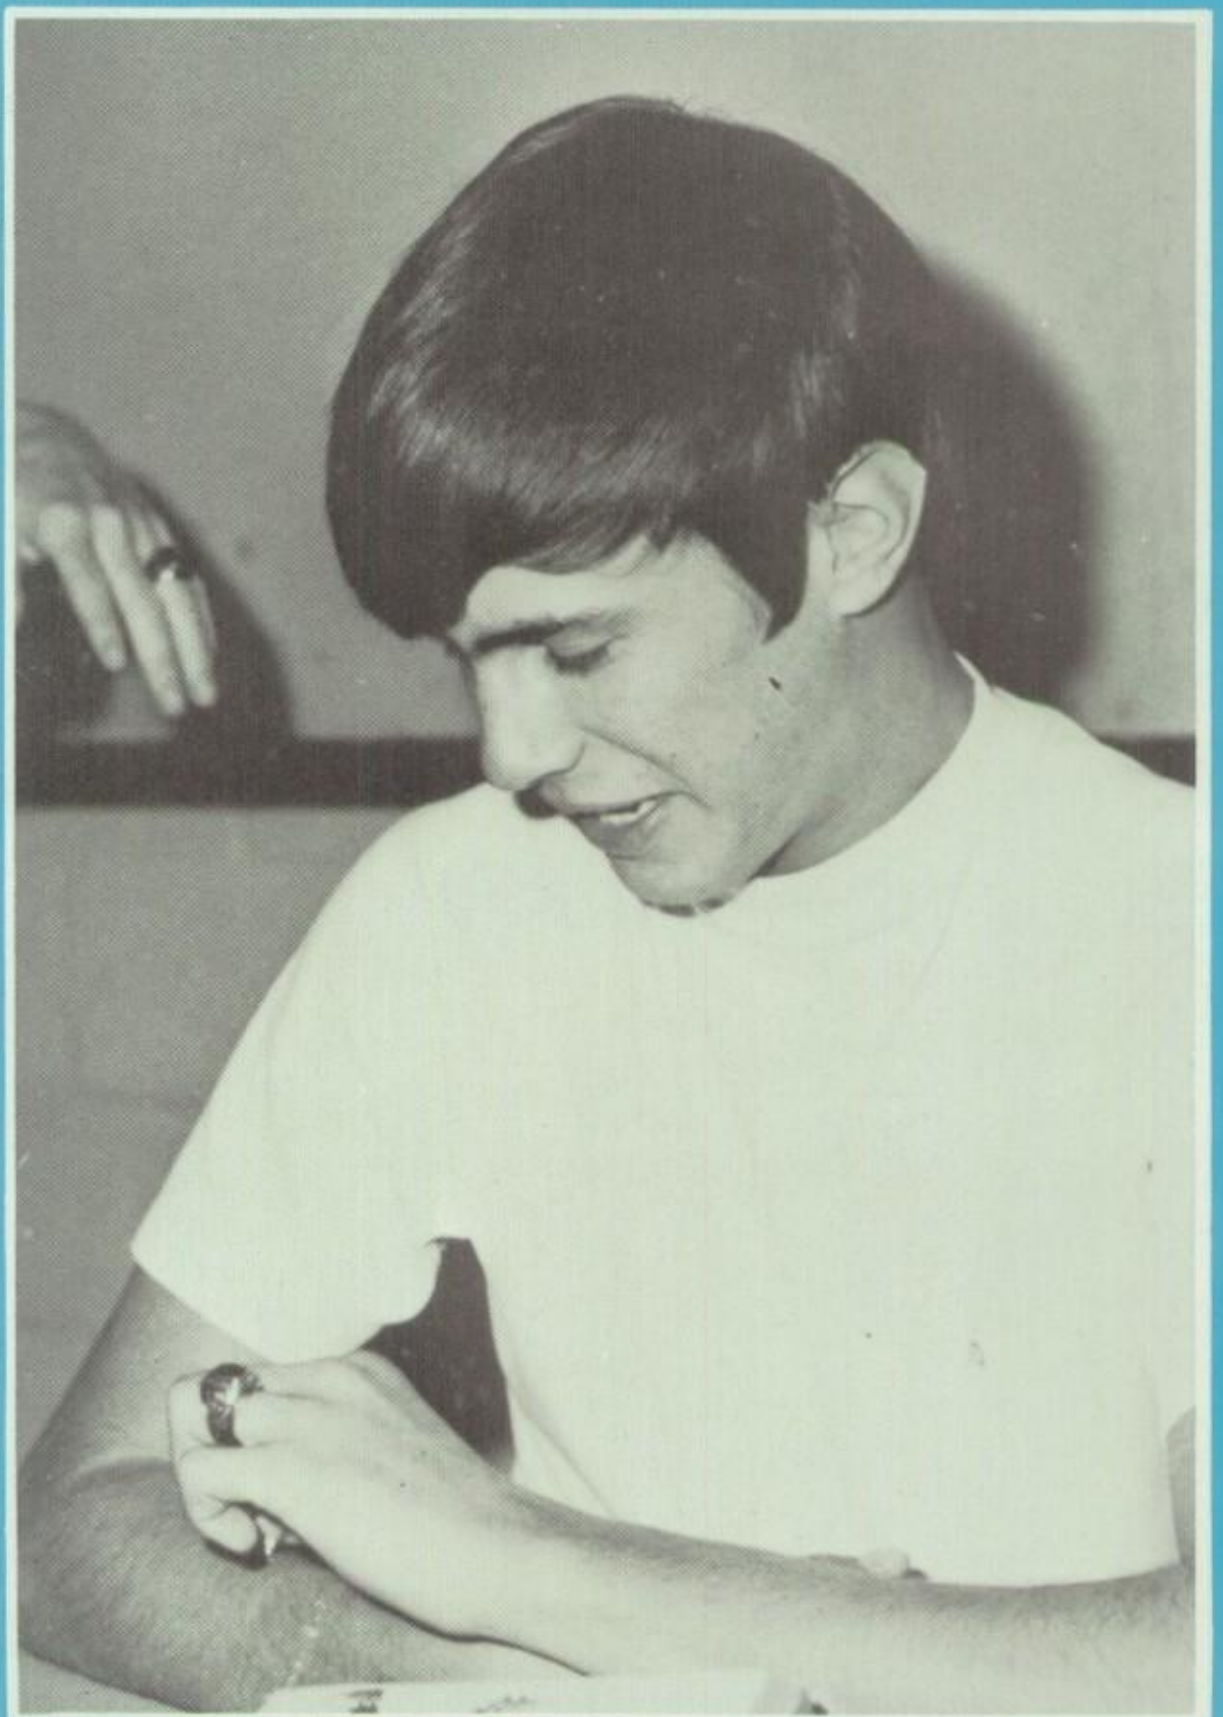

We wish to thank everyone for assistance and cooperation in making this yearbook possible, and we extend a special thanks to the parents who freely gave their time to help us by contacting advertisers and contributors. It is through their efforts that we are able to capture and hold the faces of this year at Washita Heights.

THE CHIEFTAIN STAFF

FACES . . . PLEASANT, SURPRISED, POSED AND

OF OUR FRIENDS . . .
CAUGHT IN A MOMENT
CAPTURED FOR OUR MEMORY

SUNGLASSES AND SMILES . . .

FACES REFLECT THEM ALL.
THE FACES TELL THE STORY.
THE FACES RECORD ITS CHAPTERS.

EVERYWHERE THERE ARE FACES . . .
SOME HAPPY, SOME SOLEMN WITH THOUGHT,
SOME SAD . . . BUT ALWAYS THEY ARE THERE.
FACES ARE SOMETIMES MIRRORS WHICH REFLECT
WHAT WE SEE AND SOMETIMES WINDOWS
THAT LET OTHERS SEE IN. DO WE KNOW
THE MEANING OF FACES? DO WE UNDERSTAND THE STORIES THEY TELL?

ADMINISTRATION

MR. ADRAIN CRABB SUPERINTENDENT

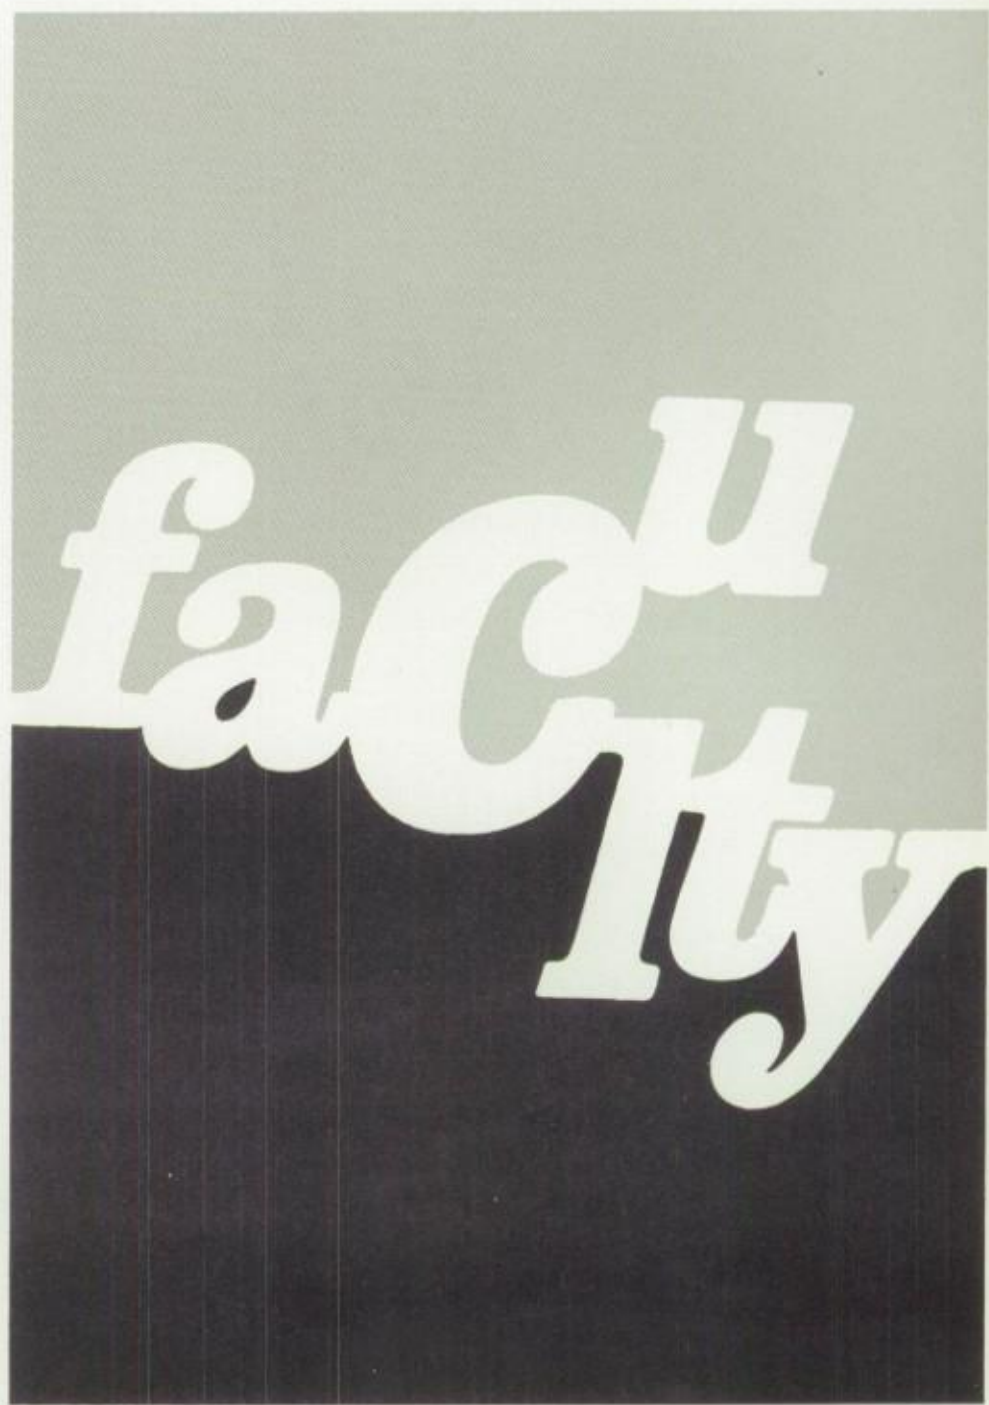

Seeing that Washita Heights is efficiently conducted and is a pleasant place to teach and learn is no easy task; problems arise daily. Working together with the board members, faculty, and students, to see that these problems are taken care of is Mr. Adrain Crabb, superintendent. Our school is very fortunate and proud to have Mr. Crabb as superintendent. He works endless hours for the improvement of Washita Heights.

BOARD OF EDUCATION

The Washita Heights Board of Education helps the school both academically and in extra-curricular activities. The members give freely of their time, encouragement and support, and it is through their efforts and those of the administration that Washita Heights is achieving success. Seated are Othal Bond, clerk, Jack McLemore, member, and Willard Heinrichs, president. Standing are LaVern Nickel, vice-president, and Herschel House, member.

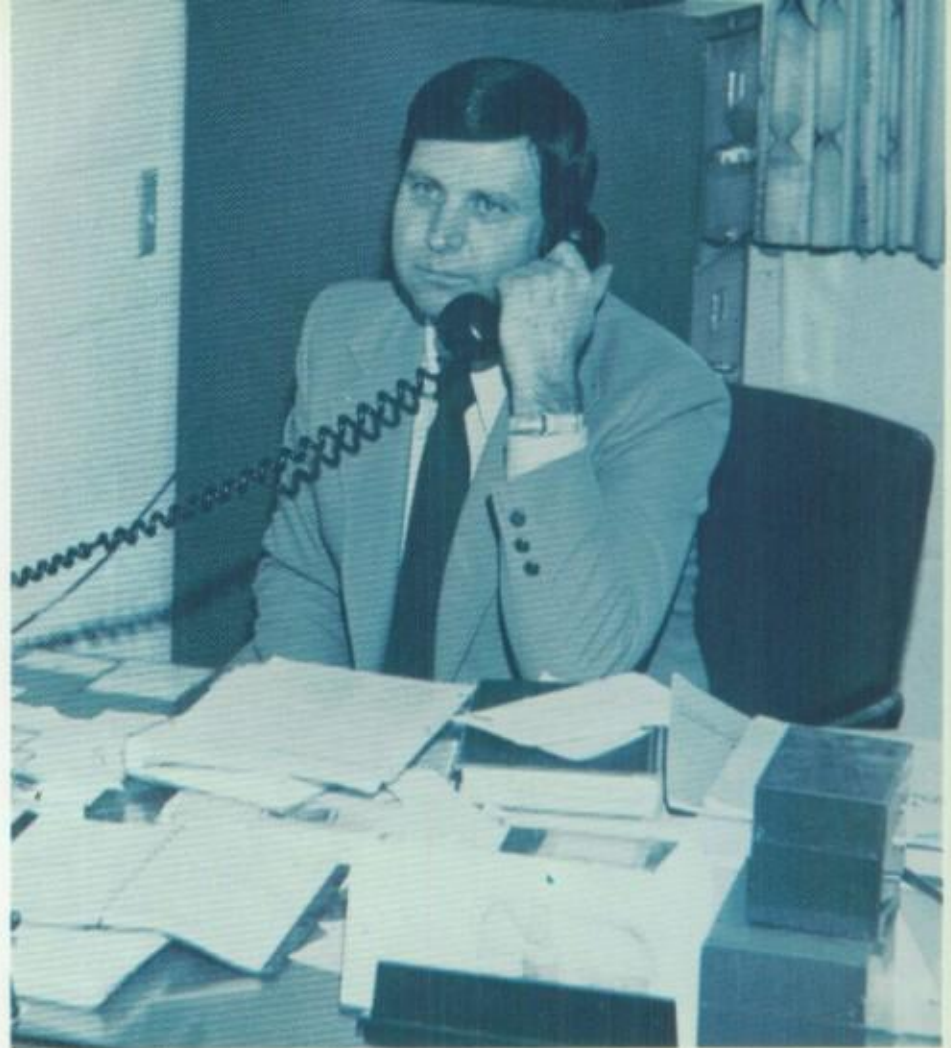

PRINCIPALS

Showing leadership qualities and taking an interest in the accomplishments of all students are the principals of Washita Heights School. They ensured that the curriculum and school policies were well developed.

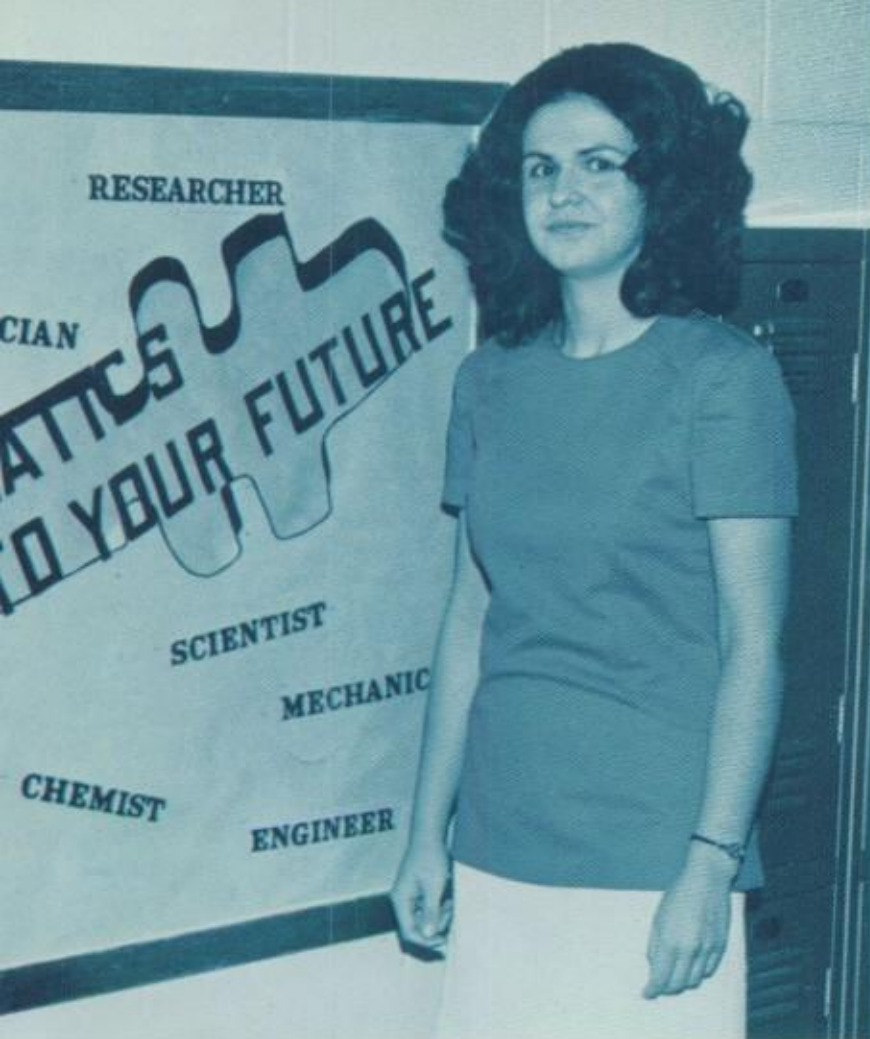

DOYLE WARD high school principal, also teaches English III and IV and speech.

GENE FLAMING, elementary principal, also teaches the fifth grade afternoon classes.

SCHOOL SECRETARIES AID IN SCHOOL FUNCTIONS

Mary Anne Couch, school secretary and bookkeeper, (top left), serves Washita Heights well, keeping financial records, payroll and general secretarial duties for the superintendent.

Peggy Payne, top right, grade school secretary, keeps the elementary records and works as the teachers' aide.

BUS DRIVERS

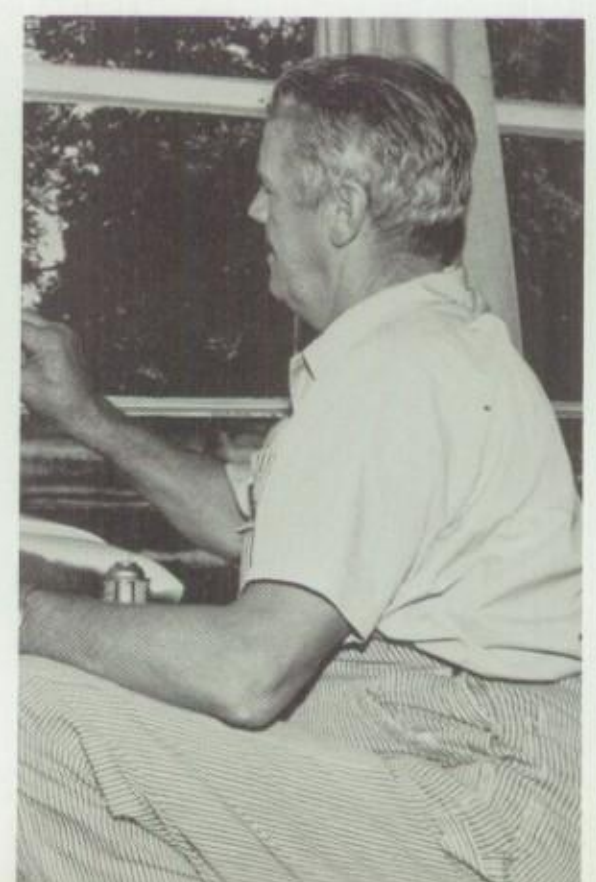

To transport students from a large transportation area, Washita Heights School depends upon these drivers, top to bottom in doorway, Vince Flaming, Kenneth Dyck, Roger Fleming, and Darrel Kidd. At the left is Rex Davis and right is Bill Pitts. A bus driver not pictured is Ron Lowry.

SCHOOL PERSONNEL

The food service personnel are dedicated to the task of planning, preparing, and serving our noon meal. The noon hour assistants, to the right, are Adalia Nikkel, high school; Luella Duerksen, grade school. Below are the grade school cooks, Edna Harper and Hazel Butterbaugh. Lower right are the high school cooks, Verna Flaming and Margaret Smith. Mrs. Smith is also the food service manager.

To keep a school in good condition is by no means an easy task. This function, often taken for granted, is carried out by three fulltime experts. They are, left to right, George Harper, high school; John Butterbaugh, elementary school; and Menno Nikkel.

BACK HOME!

WE FINALLY MADE IT! AFTER YEARS OF WORKING AND WAITING THE CLASS OF '73 HAS GRADUATED. TO OTHERS, THIS YEAR MAY NOT SEEM IMPORTANT; BUT TO US IT IS ONE OF THE MOST IMPORTANT YEARS OF OUR LIVES.

AFTER MONTHS OF CRAMMING FOR EXAMS, CRIES OF JOY AND TEARS OF DEFEAT AT BALLGAMES, MAKING FRIENDS, WE HAVE MADE IT TO THE END OF THE ROAD - GRADUATION. THE END OF THIS ROAD ALSO SIGNALS THE BEGINNING OF A NEW ONE.

LONG AFTER OUR ECHOES HAVE VANISHED FROM THE HALLS, WE WILL BE ABLE TO LOOK BACK AND RECALL THE MEMORIES OF PARTIES, FRIENDS, BALLGAMES, AND CLASS COMPETITION.
